SEPTEMBER 2016 NEWSLETTER

September is a busy month for us, and we look forward seeing you very soon.

To begin with, New York City based artists are invited to apply to our 3rd annual open call for a 6 month residency at Atelier Mondial in Basel (CH) made possible through RU's exchange partnership.

This month, we enthusiastically welcome 3 NEA "Art Works Grant Program" grantees in our residency: Brett Swenson, Keren Benbenisty and Liliya Lifanova (all New York based). Heather Dewey Hagborg (Philadelphia) begins her triple residency with RU, Thoughtworks and Data and Society. In addition, Diogo Pimentao joins us from Portugal/UK, Leasho Johnson from Jamaica, and Peter Puklus, Hungary.

RU is launching a collaboration with the Department of Art and Design at Montclair State University. In September, RU artists Ana Penalba and Liliya Lifanova are invited to give a lecture at the "Art Forum speaker" series led by professors Andrew Atkinson and Cathy Bebout. The course introduces students to the creative process, philosophies of art, and the role of art in life. Admission is free and open to all students as well as the general public.

Lastly, take a look at this month's instalment of Lanchonete's monthly blog post, this time on there largest public event called ATAQUE!

RU PUBLIC PROGRAMS

RU Event: 13 Presidents

13 Presidents

Marisa J. Futernick

September 6, 6:30 pm
Residency Unlimited (RU)

Launching a new book, artist Marisa J. Futernick will be in conversation with curator Emma Enderby (Public Art Fund and Rice + Toye).

In 2014, Marisa J. Futernick drove nearly ten thousand miles across America, visiting all thirteen of the nation's Presidential libraries along the way. 13 Presidents is the result: an artist's book that combines photographs from the journey with a suite of short stories.
