Opportunities

2023 RAIR residency
Deadline: October 31, 2022
Open call for national and international emerging and mid career artists to access a unique platform at the intersection of art and industry. Situated inside a construction and demolition waste recycling company in northeast Philadelphia, RAIR offers artists studio space and access to more than 500 tons of materials per day.

Beam Center Open Call
Deadline: November 7, 2022
Each year, Beam Center seeks design proposals for ambitious public artworks that will be brought to life through collaborations between youth and creative big thinkers. Projects are realized by a community of more than 100 young people at each project sites: in New Hampshire (NH), on Governors Island (GI), and in a local NYC community and will come with a $5,000 award plus a $15,000 fabrication budget.

Currier Museum Artist-in-Residence
Deadline: December 1, 2022
The Currier Museum of Art will award up to two residencies between fall 2023 and spring 2024. The awards will provide support for self-identified emerging artists (or groups of up to three artists) focused on social practice. Residencies may be for a period of 6 to 12 weeks and privilege social practice artists who share the goal of impacting people through the transformative power of art.
