

This year we received an exceptionally high number of applications for the 2023 Atelier Mondial Residency in Basel (CH). We are delighted that the New York based artist Christopher Aque is nominated for a residency that begins next February, all expenses covered. In turn, RU will host the Swiss artist Raphaël-Bachir Osman in New York for 6 months in 2023. This annual exchange is made possible through the generous support of Atelier Mondial Basel (Christoph Merian Stiftung).

In October, RU is organizing several group shows. Saturday October 22, we invite you to meet in person the RU artists Fatum Doçi, Eduardo Lozano, Brilant Milazimi and Lisa Strassberg who are exhibiting work at the RU space in Carroll Gardens. Meanwhile, at Ace Hotel Brooklyn, Ibtisam Tasnim Zaman will host walkthroughs of her duo show with Damali Abrams titled Our Mothers' Garden on October 14, 21, 28 and November 4 from 3-5pm. Works on view were realized during a residency on Governors Island.

RU is pleased to introduce 2022 resident artists Fatlum Doçi, Eduardo Lozano, Brilant Milazimi and Lisa Strassberg.

Artist residencies are generally thought of as spaces for personal development. Yet to enter an artist residency can be like migrating into a no man's land where artists with a wide range of practices—at times diametrically opposed—are expected to immerse themselves within a pre-determined group setting. The impetus behind this group show stems from a collaborative approach where four artists from very different cultural backgrounds are looking at and selecting each other's work.
