Artists! Muralists! 7 days left to apply for the incredible opportunity offered by the NYC Health + Hospitals Arts in Medicine Community Murals Project. The deadline is Monday, December 5 at 11:59pm EST to send in your application!

On December 7 we are thrilled to invite you to current RU artist Julie Stavad's solo exhibition opening at Ace Hotel Brooklyn. This will be the third show of RU artists hosted in 2022 by this generous and beautiful space.

And on December 13, RU will feature our last program of the year with a Meet Over Lunch discussion bringing together the artist Zuzanna Hertzberg and curator Shira Backer. Zuzanna's work will also be on view at RU that day.

“Who is really sharp” by Julie Stavad

Who is Really Sharp

Julie Stavad
Opening Dec 7, 6-8pm
at Ace Hotel Brooklyn with Residency Unlimited
Exhibition Opening: Wednesday December 7, 2022 | 6:00-8:00pm

On view: December 7 - 25

Location: The Gallery at Ace Hotel Brooklyn
252 Schermerhorn St, Brooklyn, NY 11217 (map)

With a poetic approach to the mundane, the Danish artist Julie Stavad investigates the liminal state between function and value. Her sculptures contain stories of what we humans do with objects, what they do to us, and how we and they encounter each other in the universe. This new series of sculptural objects specially created for the context of the Ace Hotel Gallery operates as three-dimensional still lifes. They are composed of shoes and cutlery - everyday objects that will be open for discussions about housework, body, and resilience.

By playing with the proportions and materialities of things, Julie Stavad investigates our bodies’ modes of decoding objects and their surroundings. Her sculptures bring the body into play through jumps in scale and contrasting effects in materials. Something which is known as small, and perhaps deemed as ‘weak’, is given the size to take up space in a new and surprising way. Surreal compositions between objects and materials question the use of power, function, and emotions.

Meet Over Lunch: A conversation between Zuzanna Hertzberg and Shira Backer
December 13, 2022 | 1:00pm
Works on view: 1:00-6:00pm

Location: Residency Unlimited
360 Court Street (main green church doors), Brooklyn NY 11231 (map)

In addition to taking place in-person at RU, this program will be streamed online via Zoom at this link.

Please join us for a talk in the church between the Jewish Polish artist Zuzanna Hertzberg and Shira Backer, Leon Levy Associate Curator at the Jewish Museum in New York. As an intersectional anarcha-feminist politically engaged artist, Zuzanna will share her decade long research dedicated to the building of a new archive based on Jewish women’s fighters experience of war and violence. Zuzanna’s recent installation for the 12 Berlin Biennale for Contemporary Art (Germany), as well as this year’s exhibition at National Gallery of Art in Vilnius (Lithuania), are recovering memory of women resistance since the early XX century analyzing their strategies and methods to bring back the knowledge so we could use it today in the battles we fight.
Recent work by the artist will also be on view from 1-6pm at RU.
