

RU TALK:

An Introduction to Central Europe

by Julia Woronowicz and Marie Lukáčová

November 22, 2022 | 5pm

360 Court St., Brooklyn, NY 11231

Queen of Amber and Slavic Maid (artists and their work)

RU artists Julia Woronowicz (POL) and Marie Lukáčová (CZE) bring the topic of the grey area of so-called Central-East Europe to the table.

This is the land where witches and the Witcher come from.

What are the borders of central Europe?

Why does it lack its own identity?

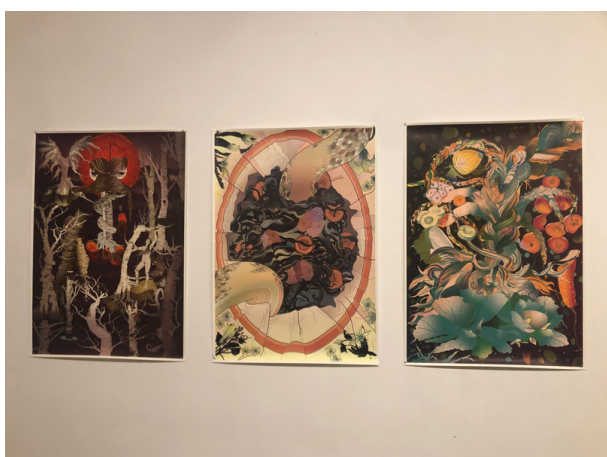

What is the position of women in those countries?

What is it like to be in the middle of Europe and taking part of its history without a concrete statement?

Two female artists born in this problematic area will talk about subjects such as Slavic mythology, finding non-Catholic roots of this land, ceremonies connected to nature, and revealing the hidden forces of women that could (and probably will) smash the patriarchy.

Photos by Laura Esporin

Top, bottom left:
Works on view by Marie Lukáčová
Top, bottom right:
Works on view by Julia Woronowicz