Please see below for more information about the open call. We look forward to receiving your applications!

Residency Unlimited (RU) is pleased to announce an Open Call for the 2024 NYC-Based Artist Residency Program.

Dedicated to artists who are traditionally underrepresented in the arts, RU's NYC-Based Artist Residency Program is accepting applications from artists who identify as Black, Indigenous and People of Color, with a focus on artistic practices that explore ideas connected to identity as an individual or as part of a larger community. The three-month residency will take place from April 1 - June 30, 2024 in collaboration with RU Guest Curator Hayley Ferber.

Residency Unlimited (RU) is a non-profit art organization that supports the creation, presentation, and circulation of contemporary art and ideas through its unique residency program and year-round public programs. Located within a former South Congregational Church in Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn, RU is a multifunctional space, acting as a hub and meeting place for RU's various community activities and public programs, including, talks, screenings, performances, and exhibitions. Here, artists and curators-in-residence hold meetings, conduct research, and at times produce work.

Il Fuoco non ha ombra

Galleria Gilda Lavia: Via dei Reti, 29/C, 00185 Roma

On view: December 13, 2023 - February 24, 2024

Solo show by Gabriella Ciancimino (2019 RU alum) where she presents a monumental site-specific installation that acts as a container for paintings, drawings and sculptures created for the occasion. The visitor is accompanied by the melody of "La città delle campanule", a video produced by Ciancimino in 2015, which is found in the second room of the exhibition space.

"Say to remember me, So we won't forget"

Documentation Center Kosova: 10000 Sadik Bekteshi, Prishtina

On view: December 15, 2023 - January 20, 2024

Exhibition featuring a video installation by Renea Begolli (2024 YVAA/RU artist) and Luiza Thaqi designed to engage the visitor in an alternate dimension. "Say to remember me, So we won't forget" emphasizes the importance of encouraging the communication of memories, whether through verbal communication, writing, or in this case, through both research and artistic work, to highlight the experiences of women about pregnancy, birth, and motherhood during the period of war in Kosovo.
